

FriendFinder

Android app that helps find friends that are within a certain radius from the user and displays their location on a Map.

Components:

- *) The mobile app will upload the latitude and longitude information to a backend sever/database.
- *) A mysql database that contains details of every registered user.
- *) A webservice written in php that sends login/registered information to the backend and also fetches details of friends close by to be displayed in the map.

